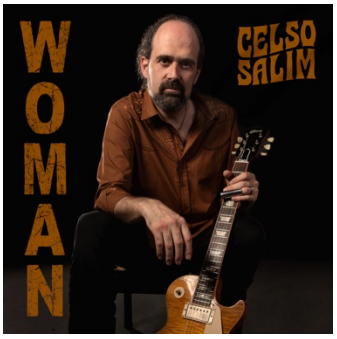
FOR RELEASE ON NOVEMBER 14th, 2025

Celso Salim Pours His Heart and Soul into New Single "Woman"



Brazilian-born, Los Angeles–based blues-rock guitarist Celso Salim is dropping his new single, "Woman" on November 14th – a passionate track infused with Southern rock vibes and driven by his soulful slide guitar. The song features captivating vocals and heartfelt lyrics, "It talks about that moment you fall in love" says Celso. Backed by Mike Hightower on bass and Dan Potruch on drums, "Woman" captures a raw power trio energy, delivering an authentic and expressive performance.

Celso Salim is an exciting emerging talent in the blues-rock scene, making waves with his remarkable musicianship and electrifying performances. Influenced by traditional blues and the iconic sound of the 1960s and '70s, Celso began playing at age 6 and made his stage debut at 14. Originally from Brasilia, Brazil, he moved to Los Angeles in 2014, quickly becoming one of the most sought-after guitarists in the area.

Celso has shared the stage with blues greats Magic Slim, Larry McCray, and Jimmy Hall, and opened for legends such as B.B. King and Joe Bonamassa. With six solo albums, he earned 3rd place at the 2019 International Blues Challenge and received 5 Independent Music Awards. Recently, he has performed with Bull Y Los Bufalos and collaborated with guitarists Johnny Stachela and Artur Menezes. His album with Darryl Carriere, "About Time", was named one of The Big Blues Chart's Top 100 Albums of 2024.

With an unwavering drive to create and perform, Celso is eager to share his music with audiences worldwide.

Produced by Mike Hightower and Salim himself, "Woman" is a Wide Tracks Recordings release and will be available on all major platforms on November 14th, 2025.
